Policy Statement

Samford valley Steiner School (SVSS) is committed to ensuring that student, parent and employee complaints are dealt with in a responsive, efficient, and effective and fair way.

SVSS views complaints as part of an important feedback and accountability process.

SVSS acknowledges the right of students, parents and employees to complain when dissatisfied with an action, inaction or decision of the school and the school encourages constructive criticism and complaints.

SVSS recognises that time spent on handling complaints can be an investment in better service to students, parents and employees and is a driver for school improvement.

Complaints that may be Resolved under this Policy

SVSS encourage students, parents and employees to lodge promptly any concerns regarding sexual harassment, child protection, discrimination, workplace bullying and privacy breaches as well as more general complaints that include areas such as:

- the school, its employees or students having done something wrong
- the school, its employees or students having failed to do something they should have done
- the school, its employees or students having acted unfairly or impolitely
- issues of student or employee behaviour that are contrary to their relevant code of conduct
- issues related to learning programs, assessment and reporting of student learning
- issues related to communication with students or parents or between employees
- issues related to school fees and payments
- general administrative issues.

Student complaints may be brought by students or by parents on behalf of their children, as appropriate in the circumstances.

Issues Outside this Policy

The following matters are outside the scope of this policy and should be managed as follows:

- Child protection concerns or risks of harm to children should be dealt with in accordance with the law and the school's Child Protection Policy.
- Student bullying complaints should be dealt with under the SVSS Student Bullying Policy or SVSS Social Health and Wellbeing Policy.
- Student discipline matters, including matters involving suspension or expulsion, should be dealt with under the SVSS Social Health and Wellbeing Policy.
- Employee complaints related to their employment should be directed to their supervisor.
- Student or employee violence or criminal matters should be directed to the School Director who will involve the Police as appropriate.
- Formal legal proceedings.

Complaints Resolution Principles

SVSS is committed to managing complaints according to the following principles:

- complaints will be taken seriously
- anonymous complaints will not be accepted

- complaints should be raised within 3 months of concern
- complaints will be dealt with fairly and objectively and responded to in a timely manner
- SVSS will determine the appropriate person to deal with the complaint in the first instance. Complaints should be resolved with as little formality and disputation as possible
- mediation, negotiation, restorative practice and informal resolution are optional alternatives
- procedural fairness will be ensured wherever practicable, including the right of interested parties to the complaint to be heard
- confidentiality and privacy will be maintained as much as possible
- all parties to the complaints will be appropriately supported
- SVSS will give reasonable progress updates
- appropriate remedies will be offered and implemented
- provide a review pathway for parties to the complaint if warranted
- complainants, respondents and people associated with them will not be victimised as a result of lodging the complaints and they will not suffer any other reprisals
- the school will keep records of complaints
- the school's insurer will be informed if a complaint could be connected to an insured risk.

Responsibilities

School

The school has the following role and responsibilities:

- develop, implement, promote and act in accordance with the school's Complaints Resolution Policy and System
- appropriately communicate the school's Complaints Resolution Policy and procedures to students, parents and employees
- ensure that the Complaints Resolution System are readily accessible by staff, students and parents
- upon receipt of a complaint, manage the complaint in accordance with the Complaints Resolution System
- ensure that appropriate support is provided to all parties to a complaint
- take appropriate action to prevent victimisation or action in reprisal against the complainant, respondent or any person associated with them
- appropriately implement remedies
- appropriately train relevant employees
- keep records
- conduct a review/audit of the Complaints Register from time to time
- monitor and report to the governing body on complaints
- report to the school's insurer when that is relevant
- refer to the school's governing body immediately any claim for legal redress.

All Parties to a Dispute

The complainant and respondent both have the following role and responsibilities:

- apply and comply with the school's Complaints Resolution Policy and Complaints Resolution System

- lodge the complaint as soon as possible after the issue arises
- expect that the complaint will be dealt with fairly and objectively; in a timely manner; with procedural fairness wherever practicable; that confidentiality and privacy will be maintained as much as possible
- provide complete and factual information in a timely manner
- not provide deliberately false or misleading information
- not make frivolous or vexatious complaints
- act in good faith, and in a calm and courteous manner
- act in a non-threatening manner
- maintain confidentiality and respect school procedures
- to be appropriately supported
- acknowledge that a common goal is to achieve an outcome acceptable to all parties
- recognise that all parties have rights and responsibilities which must be balanced
- maintain and respect the privacy and confidentiality of all parties
- not victimise or act in reprisal against any party to the dispute or any person associated with them.

Employees Receiving Complaints

Employees receiving complaints have the following role and responsibilities:

- act in accordance with the school's Complaints Resolution Policy and System
- inform the party lodging the complaint of how complaints can be lodged, when they should be lodged and what information is required
- provide the complainant with information about any support or assistance available to assist them in lodging their complaint
- provide the complainant with a copy of the school's Complaints Resolution Policy and procedures
- maintain confidentiality
- keep appropriate records
- to forward complaints to Faculty Director, Economic Development Manager or the School Director, as appropriate
- not victimise or act in reprisal against the complainant, respondent or any person associated with them.

Implementation

SVSS is committed to raising awareness of the process for resolving complaints at the school, including the development and implementation of this policy and related procedures, and via the clear support and promotion of the policy and procedures.

SVSS is also committed to appropriately training relevant employees (especially those on the Senior Leadership Team) on how to resolve complaints in line with this policy and the related procedures.

SVSS will keep appropriate records of complaints, will monitor complaints and their resolution and will report on a high-level basis to the school Board on complaint resolution at the school.

SVSS will act to encourage students, parents and employees to contribute to a healthy school culture where complaints are resolved with as little formality and disruption as possible.
